HANDS BANDAGED
EIGHT WEEKS

With Bad Case of Eczema—Treatment by Three Doctors Made Them Worse—Grateful New Hampshire Lady Says: "No Matter How Long Any One Has Suffered with Eczema

"CUTICURA REMEDIES WILL CURE IT"

"Three years ago this summer I had a very bad case of eczema in my hands. They were so bad I had to keep them bandaged for eight weeks. I had four different doctors. The first three made them worse. The last one helped them for a little while, but the next summer they broke out worse than ever; and as I had seen Cuticura advertised in the papers a great deal, I thought I would try it. I took the complete treatment of Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills. Before I had used one box of Ointment my hands were all smooth again, and now I am doing all the work for four and my hands are all free from eczema, and I cannot say too much in praise for Cuticura. My hair was falling out fast and a few applications of the Ointment stopped it. If there is any part of this letter that would be the means of others trying Cuticura, I am willing you should publish it; as I would like others to be cured as I was; for no matter how long any one has suffered with eczema, Cuticura Remedies will cure it. Yours truly, Mrs. Leon J. Hoyt, Box 402, Bristol, N. H., July 18, 1905."

OF OLD VERMONT STOCK.

John Remington, Who Died at Bennington Last Evening.

Bennington, Sept. 27.—John Remington, one of the old residents of the village and father of ex-Secretary J. T. Remington, died at the residence of his son last evening at 6 o'clock. He was 84 years of age on his last birthday, a month ago. Mr. Remington had been in his usual good health until about four weeks ago, when he had a slight shock of paralysis, from which he never fully recovered, although he was on the street daily until a few days ago.

Mr. Remington was born in Black River, N. Y., and when young was brought to South Wallingford, where he resided most of the time until he came here a few months ago. For 60 years he was engaged in business in that town and was considered one of the best stone masons in Rutland county.

He was descended from old revolutionary stock, his grandfather on his mother's side, Daniel Doty, having been a captain in the revolutionary army, serving under Lafayette and being one of the body guard that accompanied him on his last trip to this country. He was wounded during the war and drew a pension. Mr. Remington's father, Rufus Remington, served in the American army during the war of 1812 and participated in the battle of Plattsburgh.

In 1861, when the war broke out, Mr. Remington was in San Francisco, and when the southern sympathizers were trying to force the state into the rebel side, he joined a company that was raised for the purpose of the union and did good work until the state was safely retained in the union. He returned to Vermont after having been in California eight years.

Mr. Remington's wife died some time ago. Two sons were born to them, one of whom lost his life by drowning. The other resides here.

Miss Cora Goode

benefited as she was. Miss Goode is president of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I tried many different remedies to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unreasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help me. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to be out of bed and out of doors in three months. I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since."

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, bloating, or flatulence, displacement of organs, inflammation or ulceration, can be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Her experience is very great, and she gives the benefit of it to all who stand in need of wise counsel. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.

WHO IS KANE?

St. Louis Firm Swindled Also Wants to Know About an Alleged Publisher.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 28.—William Battle, president of the firm of Battle & Co., chemists, Wednesday requested the chief of police to institute an investigation in Boston and Philadelphia with a view to capturing a man calling himself Kane, who has been giving the signature of E. F. Smith, secretary of Battle & Co., to a contract, succeeded in collecting $40 from the publisher.

The alleged spurious contract, presented when Mr. Smith was out of town, was for advertising in "Pearson's Year Book of United States Industries," purporting to be published in Boston and Philadelphia by Paul Meyer Pearson. "Kane" backed up the "contract" with an alleged copy of the alleged year book, containing a Battle & Co. advertisement.

Mr. Battle wants to know whether Paul Meyer Pearson is a myth or really exists, and if he really exists, whether he can throw any light upon "Kane."

"Kane" is described as about 25 years old, 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighing about 14 pounds, smooth faced and well dressed in a dark suit and black stiff hat.
